| Forward: Foundation For Women's Health Research And Development | www.forwarduk.org.uk             | Forward works to advance and protect the sexual and reproductive health and human rights of African girls and women. In particular it has been working to eliminate the practice and provide support to women affected by Female Genital Mutilation (FGM). | The Trust provided funding for a Campaigns and Advocacy Manager. This will enable the organisation to strengthen its campaigning work to end FGM and other forms of gender-based violence and broaden the work by engaging with a wider range of African Diaspora women's organisations in London. A key element of the work will be to strengthen the voice of African women migrants in policy influencing work. | 75,000         | 3      | London-wide |
| Manor Gardens Centre  | www.manorgardenscentre.org | Manor Gardens runs a range of community healthcare projects. Its Health Advocacy Project works with refugees and newly arrived communities with the aim of equipping them with the necessary skills to reduce the health inequalities they face.           | Manor Gardens Centre is part of the Trust's special initiative on Preventing FGM. The Trust provided continuation funding is towards the core costs of the Health Advocacy Project, to enable it to continue to support the London FGM forum.  | 11,000         | 1      | London-wide |

| Coram Children's Legal Centre | www.childrenlegalcentre.com     | Coram Children's Legal Centre provides free legal information, advice and representation to children, their families and carers, as well as international consultancy on child law and children's rights.  | The SLF provided funding to enable Coram to intervene in a Judicial Review case in the High Court involving children granted leave in the UK on the basis of their rights to respect for private and family life under Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights. The children, who were born and brought up in the UK, were granted three years' discretionary leave and are challenging this to argue that they should have been granted indefinite leave to remain. The case raises issues relating to the impact on children of temporary status and the public interest in upholding the rights of children. Coram Children's Legal Centre will act as third party interveners to assist the parties and the court in the approach to be taken to the best interests of the child and the Home Office's duties to have regard to the need to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. | 10,000         | 1      | London-wide |

| Just for Kids Law       |         | Just for Kids Law provides support, legal advice and representation to young people who find themselves in difficulty. | The SLF provided funding to address the lack of procedure and understanding of age disputes and assessments in the criminal justice system, and in particular the practice of "deeming" a young person's age. This can result in children being treated as adults in the criminal courts and in sentencing. The project will involve legal research across the criminal, immigration and community care fields, devising and implementing a litigation strategy, partnering with other organisations that can contribute to the work, and identifying a test case to take to judicial review.   | 5,000  | 1      | London-wide |
| Kesar and Co Solicitors |         | Kesar & Co. is a private solicitors' firm, specialising in immigration, asylum, prison law and criminal appeals.       | The SLF provided funding towards pre-litigation research to explore whether children seeking asylum in the UK, who may have viable claims for protection, are routinely refused. The project will examine UK Border Agency and immigration and asylum tribunal decision making in relation to children's asylum claims, and in particular whether relevant domestic, European and international legal instruments are taken into consideration. The project will involve analysis of reasons for refusal in closed files, consultation with other practitioners and the development of innovative arguments to be used in initial asylum claims, at appeal and in a test case or in test cases. | 12,000 | 1      | London-wide |
| Migrant Legal Project   |         | Migrant Legal Project provides legal advice and representation in asylum, immigration and nationality matters.         | The SLF provided funding to MLP to conduct research and develop a legal challenge to protect the rights of child victims of trafficking who go missing from care following a criminal conviction. The aim is to protect children who are vulnerable and presumed still to be in the UK, to highlight the way in which children who go missing are treated, and to improve policy and practice with them.  | 11,510 | 1      | London-wide |
